— HAPPY NEW YEAR —

NEW THINGS. OLD THINGS MUST PASS AWAY!

With the new year usually comes new plans, new resolutions, and new things. While we embrace the new things with open arms and hopeful expectation, the Lord has impressed upon our hearts with this big move coming up to Africa to deal properly with the old things that are currently taking up space either in our hearts and in our minds, or perhaps even physically taking up space like clothes, toys, trinkets, etc. Unless we let go and give these old things to Christ, they will linger and weigh on our shoulders as heavy burdens. "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" - 2 CORINTHIANS 5:17

KENYAN WORK VISAS APPROVED!

Speaking of new things if you have not heard yet, we have received our Kenyan Work Visas and we are so excited! We have paid the final payment for our Work Visas and the dependant visas for our children should be finalized this month as well. The Work Visas we have been approved for are good for 3 years and the process to renew them in the future is said to be much easier and can be done in Kenya. Our baby girl Ava is due to be born in March. It takes about 4-6 weeks to get her a passport and her first round of needed shots before we leave.

Below is a picture of some of the Challenge Farm kids, staff, and Missionary Cheri Thomspen (she is like Waldo, see if you can find her.) We can not wait to get there and be a part of the awesome things God is doing on the ground!

to GO!

One amazing thing God is doing through Challenge Farm is raising up workers for the Harvest. This is Elizabeth, she grew up at Challenge Farm, now works on staff, and money has been raised for her to follow God's call to GO and she will be leaving soon for a 6 month missionary training in Maputo, Mozambique so please keep her in your prayers!
